Maria and Luke had to cancel their wedding due to the pandemic and then go into lockdown with his mum, Karen. That was a year ago. That was season one. That was CANCELLED.

Now, Karen has returned to Australia allowing the couple to reconnect and to reorganise their wedding. But with travel restrictions and curfews in place all around the world, Maria and Luke decide to cancel their wedding. Again. At least this time around they are together. Just the two of them. Or are they? Soon they will discover that they are about to become a threesome. Again. Maria discovers she is pregnant right when Luke is about to try and fly to Australia to visit his family.

How will these two people that want to be in different countries face a pregnancy whilst Spain and the rest of the world is still being hammered by an ever-changing pandemic?
