The format of cooking shows undergoes a real revolution in "Chef ou pas chef?" where it is necessary to determine which of four cooks is a real chef.

It is an invitation into the world of gastronomic cuisine from starred restaurants. Places, men and women, magical, enigmatic, and different in each episode.

As you know, through their culinary creations, the chefs, true directors on the plates, take us on a journey to the heart of gastronomic cuisine to discover local producers and an exceptional terroir.

In each episode, four cooks get into the kitchen to create a complete menu and viewers are challenged to guess who the chef is among four captivating and enthusiastic cooks.

The stakes are twofold: The first 10 win the tasting of this menu with a meeting with the chef. Then by drawing lots from among all the correct answers, a viewer will be awarded the exceptional sum of 1000 euros.
