Today an entire generation is growing up in a world filled with negative headlines. Disasters, climate change, and wars threaten our very existence. The understandable result - pessimism and despair.

HOPE is the courageous response to the challenges of our time.

Featuring George Clooney and his global justice NGO THE SENTRY, HOPE is a must-see documentary, delivering a powerful message of resilience and hope.

In a world flooded with bad news, the story of Gloria, a young South Sudanese refugee who lost everything, shines as a beacon of hope.

This documentary exposes the refugee crisis in Northern Uganda and offers concrete solutions. Co-produced by Isensee Film (Germany), Talkingfilm (Uganda), and supported by Clooney's NGO, THE SENTRY, it also highlights Brian Adeba and pathways to lasting peace.

"a beautifully shot and very important piece" Daniel Korn, VP Programming A&E Networks
