The lives of five friends are about to change forever as a mysterious alien ship appears in the skies over Bristol, England. Widespread panic ensues and anarchy rules. The unlikely group of five band together in an attempt to flee the city and reach loved ones before it's too late. As family loyalties are tested and relationships pushed to the brink, they learn the terrifying truth about who the aliens really are and why they've come.

They thought the farm-house would bring them safety, but when a mysterious figure from the past confronts the group, they are forced to head back to the city of Bristol and risk their lives in order to save not just themselves, but potentially the whole world. Together they will face new threats, from forces on the ground, in the skies above, and even from within...

The only thing for sure is that nothing is as it seems, and the clock is ticking...
