

A Horseman, a Dream, Boucane

1 x 45 min

This documentary is about the dedication and passion of two underdogs attaining the quintessence in their sport. It is about a simple man who was able to accomplish what was not to be. It is about how life took away the dream of that man and how he was able to rebuild it. And how, at 74, he is still following his passion. This is the story of Yves Landry and his passion for horses. Among them, his best partner ever named Boucane.
