DOCUSERIES

20 x 60 min

PRODUCER: Quiet Motion

It's a fact. The more a society laughs, the healthier and happier it is. What people find funny is the ultimate measure of the culture we live in. Regardless of where we live, everyone laughs, although it's rarely for the same reasons.

"Rires du monde!" takes us on a hilarious journey to find out exactly where, why and how people laugh the most. Led by a different host, each episode is a separate global adventure through the world of funny.

We'll find out what sociologists and stand up comedians really think, and attempt to understand more about what makes people chuckle, snicker, snort, guffaw, crack-up, howl and roar.

There's lots of learn here, and lots to laugh about. But even if you don't, not to worry ~ someone's laughing somewhere!
