

PRESS RELEASE - For immediate release

HG Distribution Licenses PIN to Česká televize for Broadcast in the Czech Republic

Starting September 1st, 2026, the Czech public broadcaster will offer the animated youth series on its VOD platform.

Montreal, August 25th, 2026 - HG Distribution is proud to announce a licensing agreement with Česká televize, the national public television broadcaster of the Czech Republic, for the streaming of the animated youth series PIN. Beginning September 1st, 2026, Czech viewers will have the pleasure of discovering this charming and educational series on the broadcaster's VOD platform. The series was acquired for CT edu, Czech Television's educational website. Teaching materials for the series have been prepared by the organization AISIS. In addition to a description, each video will include a teaching tip to help teachers make effective use of the series. The agreement covers VOD (video-on-demand) rights for the Czech territory, with a scheduled launch on September 1st, 2026 on Česká televize's digital platform.

About PIN

MONEY TALKS! Then let's talk money for 3 minutes per episode. PIN is an animated series committed to demonstrating the rudiments of economics using quirky humour and colourful characters. Please meet Peter Imbeault-Nicholl, aka PIN! This slightly naive teenager is introduced to responsible finance by Ruby Cashon, a financial advisor who doesn't hesitate to give her young apprentice the straight goods. Composed of short, punchy vignettes covering one subject at a time, PIN wants to be as instructive as funny.

Format: 50 x 3' & 5 x 30' | 2022 | Animation, Educational, Humorous | Kids, Teens | HD, 4K | Producer: Productions Mustang, in collaboration with Slalom

An award-winning series recognized by Youth Media Alliance

PIN has been recognized by the Youth Media Alliance (Alliance Médias Jeunesse), an organization dedicated to celebrating excellence in youth content across Canada. This distinction underscores the pedagogical and creative quality of the series, which now finds enthusiastic audiences beyond Canadian borders.

About Česká televize

Česká televize is the national public television broadcaster of the Czech Republic, with a tradition spanning more than seventy years. It provides a broad range of programming, including news, current affairs, drama, documentaries, children's content, sports and cultural productions. As a public service broadcaster, Česká televize is funded primarily through television licence fees and has a mandate to deliver independent, high-quality programming that informs, educates and entertains audiences across the country. It operates six national television channels and the iVysílání VOD platform. Česká televize is also an active producer and co-producer of original Czech content for domestic and international audiences and is the largest co-producer of Czech films.
